中考英语完形填空：学做手工铅笔盒

完形填空原文

In our school's "Reduce, Reuse, Recycle" week, the teacher asked us to make 1 useful from waste materials. I decided to make a pencil case from an old pair of jeans.

I found a pair of jeans that no longer 2 me in the closet. My mother said I could cut them up for my project. I felt a little sad 3 they had been my favorite jeans, but I was excited to give them a new life.

First, I cut one leg of the jeans into a rectangular piece. The denim was thick and 4, which was perfect for a pencil case. Then I folded the fabric in half and sewed the two 5 together with blue thread.

The most creative part was making the zipper opening. I didn't have a sewing machine, so I had to sew the zipper 6 hand. It was slow work, but I enjoyed the process. Each stitch was like a small victory.

When the pencil case was finished, I decorated it with a button from the original jeans. My classmates were 7 when they saw it. "It doesn't even look handmade!" one of them said. That was probably the 8 compliment I could receive.

The teacher said our projects showed that with a little creativity, old items don't have to end up 9 the trash. She reminded us that every small action 10 and we should all try to reduce waste in our daily lives.
